How to Finally Find and Attract the Man of Your Dreams in Six Simple Steps
Imagine, No More Mr. Wrongs If youve ever thought to yourself, I need help to find me a man or I just want to know where to find a man, this may be the most important message you will ever read: Heres why: Iim John Alanis, and for the past 8 years I have shown men how to attract the women they really want. During that time I have gotten to understand how men really think about women, and Im going to tell you a secret that will help you attract the man you really want answering the question, where to find a guy, without ever worrying about settling again. Here it is: what men really want is a committed relationship with that one special woman, with a few fun adventures along the way. But if thats so, why is it so hard to find good men who want a relationship with you? The answer is simple: youve been LIED to about men. Everything you see, hear, and read about how to meet the right man is a LIE. Why? Because when you do find the right man, you will no longer need the magazines and books that purport to show you where to find a man. It is in their financial interest for you to stay single and frustrated. Luckily, there is a solution. At the request of the women who follow my business closely, Ive decided to sit down and tell all about the male mind when it comes to finding the man you really want, and how you too can put the simple 6 step process to work to find him. No longer will you have to ask, how can I find a boyfriend or where to find men? ever again. This is not tricks, pressure, or manipulation, rather it is a simple process that eliminates chance, and compels the right men to approach you. Here is what is revealed in this new, book:
