What do you do when your two-year-old shakes you out of a sound sleep on your living room couch and demands that you teach him to play golf? In the first half of this book, the author leads readers through an eight year odyssey in which he used golf to teach his youngster the most important lessons of his youth. The boy discovers that being a good person outranks birdies and pars in importance. Their adventures are cut short by tragedy; the son falters, then notches an incredible victory. In part two, the author relates some of the important experiences of his life, focusing initially on an insignificant corner of the rural south. During the cold war he met a world famous musician from the Soviet Union and they shared an unbelievable adventure, which only culminated 25 years later. The author also spins the tale of Rusty, an extremely clever Alaska brown bear, who developed a brilliant fishing technique in eat salmon sushi - 40,000 Alaska brown bears cant be wrong.
