

Selective/Memory: The Depth of Emotion Book 2 (The Depth of Emotion)

Declan Sinclair was known for his dark looks and perfect physique... but no more. After a tragic accident claims his image, he's forced to end the relationship with the woman he loves. He's tortured. Thoughts of her haunt him day and night. He minimizes the pain by whatever means necessary. Aria Cole is moving on. Loving Declan filled her, then nearly destroyed her. Now that she is learning to move on without him, she vows that she'll never again give someone her heart, especially someone like Declan. She would have loved him for the rest of her life, if only he'd fought for their love. The end of Declan and Aria's relationship played right into the hands of Marisol Franzi. She's a woman who gets what she wants--and she wants Declan. In the New York fashion scene, she's earned the unofficial title of Queen. She wants Declan to be her king. They were fast becoming the hot couple in the fashion world until Aria got in her way. Big mistake. The beach girl with the big, blue eyes ruined Marisol's plans when Declan fell for her and, though their relationship is over, Declan is still under Aria's spell. Marisol plans to rectify that. She'll simply destroy her.
