Marie Rodgers and Lula Valentio want great-grandchildren. Right Now! The pair of matchmaking grandmothers conspire to bring together their two stubbornly single grandchildren. Camille Johnson is an Atlanta career woman who is enjoying her first taste of freedom after raising her younger brother. A relationship is the last thing on her mind now that she's enjoying single life in the city. After a bitter divorce, small town sheriff, Justin Valentio, steers clear of big city women. He wants a woman who will appreciate the country life that he loves. When Camille and Justin decide to go on a pretend date after enduring several accidental meetings setup by their grandmothers, they can't deny the attraction between them. But will Justin overcome his past and discover that when it comes to love, home is where the heart is...
