Does it seem like you've tried everything in your power to think creatively; and yet, despite your best efforts, you're still plagued with:

- Not knowing how to even get started
- Not understanding even where to start with defining your intent
- Not knowing how to master your creative skills

If this describes you, then you are in luck today... First, you are NOT alone! Although it may seem like it sometimes, but not knowing how to get started with creative thinking is far more common than you'd think. I ought to know, because I've been in the same spot before... There are some people who naturally have the skills, while others need to practice and learn about it first before they can take advantage of it. Being able to think creatively is very important, especially if you want to become successful in your career or in your whole life. However, only some people get to realize this fact. Let me explain... Creativity can be triggered with specific things, especially when the person involved has the natural ability to do so. For a person with some natural creative thinking skills, it naturally occurs even if he or she is not well aware of it. And the worst part of all is that the more you don't know the less you will succeed! Make no mistake about it... As a person just like you who has struggled with getting better ideas, I have searched high and low to find the best strategies to fix this problem and I am fully qualified and equipped to help you put an end to your frustration with trying to wade through all the info you need to know to use creative thinking! What exactly is creativity? Indeed, there are a number of ways you can define the word creativity. However, the most modest way to define this mysterious element that is shared by all people is the fact that creativity is the ability of the person's mind to acquire facts, materials, and/or ideas and distinguish them in a distinctive manner or way. It is a unique point of view, a fresh idea and/or a new way on looking at a certain problem. And all of this up till now is just scratching the surface!
