In all of Regency England there was no more surprised young lady than beautiful Mary MacGregor when she came to the Castle of St. John to wed dashing young Christopher Huntington, only to discover he had married another woman. Mary thought it a cruel jest when handsome, mocking Stephen Huntington offered to take his younger brothers place at the altar. Angrily Mary said yes, and before she could gather her wits, she was the bride of this virtual stranger, and a pawn in a game of danger and deception.
